

Troupe

Media Wall

VIEWSTREET

As a fully freestanding collaboration hub, Troupe Media Wall breaks away from the dependency of walls, adding flexibility to space planning. It balances division with a strong sense of community to support hybrid conferences, media presentations, education applications and more.

Troupe Media Wall enhances interaction and connectivity within the Troupe family aesthetic. Integrate technology solutions with a removable back panel and clean, concealed wire management. Tables are offered in three heights. The inverted legs are formed and layered with dual-tone option.
