

Aerie™

EVEREST

Aerie advances the future of the resilient workplace with a high-design blend of luxury and purpose. Inspired by aerodynamics, the light aesthetic seemingly defies gravity to provide strength, stability, and reliability. This large-scale, modern table ranges from 96" to 200" in length, creating a great place for deep collaboration or a hub for individualized, focused work. With centralized, integrated technology everyone stays powered and productive, even at a distance. Thoughtful design choices include a surface detail, contrasting metal colors, and seamlessly wrapped powder coat tops.

Aerie is designed exclusively for Versteel by Favaretto & Partners Design Studio.
